

Tavola Lunga in Montecarlo

6 July 2019

photos by Thomas S. England (2017-2018)

Picture this: sitting at a very long table set up throughout the main street of an Italian village somewhere in Tuscany, laden with 5 to 6 courses of local food and wine for you to enjoy.

Dream no longer! You too can take your seat at an Italian tavolata in the picturesque little hilltop Tuscan village of Montecarlo on Saturday evening 6 July 2019 along with approximately 650 fellow dreamers and (most of all) locals to experience the tradition.

Let the Grapevine Magazine take you for an early evening stroll through the historic village, to soak up its surrounds, view a (hopefully) romantic sunset, then take your seat to feast on a meal prepared by the Misericordia volunteers, complete with local wines and music. What fun!

Last year the Montecarlo Tavolata was a huge success and this year it's on again, with proceeds benefitting the elderly and disabled.

The all-inclusive cost to you is €45, which includes your “chauffeured” transport (departure outside Porta Elisa 6.30pm, return around midnight) to and from Montecarlo, menu of typical Tuscan dishes along with local wines.

Want to join us? Reserve by 17 June.

Full payment (€ 20 for dinner reservation + € 25 for transportation) is required by Monday 24 June.

Don't miss out on your seat at this fabulous table. Let us know as soon as possible if you are joining us on this special evening.
