

Puccini's Women in Lucca

Do you recognize these operatic heroines?

Students at the Liceo Artistico Passaglia and other street artists were given the project of painting shutters in the Centro Storico of Lucca, depicting female characters from Puccini operas. The locations are in Via San Paolino, Via di Poggio, and Piazza Cittadella.

This initiative was the genial idea of Silvana Froli, lyric singer and head of Lucca's La Bohème Association.

— photos by
Simonetta Biagi
& Mari Summers

The first person to identify all five heroines correctly wins a free online subscription to Grapevine!

<< home Click here to read an article from last month: >>

